(d) Any other business of which notice has been given in accordance with these rules.

10.2.4 All Officer positions due for election and all positions filled since the previous annual general meeting due to a casual vacancy shall be declared vacant with effect from the commencement of the elections at the AGM.

10.2.5 Provisions shall be made in the By-laws for:
(a) The time and manner within which persons may nominate for candidature at an election;
And:
(b) The means of conducting elections.

10.3. Special General Meetings

10.3.1 The Council may, whenever it thinks fit, convene a Special General Meeting of BAI.

10.3.2 Upon a request by not less than one third of the total number of members, a special general meeting of BAI shall be convened in the manner specified in clause 9.4.

10.3.3 A request for a special general meeting must state the purpose of the meeting. The statement of the purpose of the meeting shall be sent to all members and delegates with the notice of the meeting.

10.4. Notice of a Special General Meeting

The Secretary of the Association, at least fourteen days, or if a special resolution has been proposed at least twenty one days, before the date fixed for holding a special general meeting of the Association, must cause to be sent to each member of the Association, a notice stating the date, time and place, of the meeting and the nature of the business to be conducted at the meeting.

10.5. Voting at General Meetings

10.5.1 At general meetings only one delegate per member may vote.

10.5.2 If at a general meeting a poll (vote) on any resolution is demanded by not less than two Delegates, it must be taken at that meeting in such manner as the Chairperson may direct and the resolution of the poll shall be deemed to be a resolution of the meeting on that matter. A poll that is demanded on the election of a Chairperson or on a question of an adjournment must be taken immediately and a poll that is demanded on any other matter must be taken at such time before the close of the meeting as the Chairperson may direct.

10.5.3 In the case of an equality of voting on a question, the Chairperson of the meeting is entitled to exercise a second or casting vote.

11. THE COUNCIL

11.1. Powers and Duties of the Council

11.1.1 The affairs of BAI shall be managed and controlled by a Council which, in addition to any powers and authorities conferred by these rules, may exercise all such powers and do all such things as are within the objects of BAI, and are not by the Act or by these rules required to be done by BAI in general meeting.

11.1.2 The Council has the management and control of the funds and other property of BAI.

11.1.3 The Council shall have authority to interpret the meaning of these rules and any other matter relating to the affairs of BAI on which these rules are silent.

11.1.4 The Council shall appoint a public officer as required by the Act.

11.2. Council Meetings

11.2.1 Council meetings of BAI shall be held at least once annually.

11.2.2 Meetings may be held: in person, by telephone conference call, by using technology such as the Internet, or such other method as the Council shall approve.

11.2.3 In the case of a meeting to be held in person or via an electronic medium the Secretary shall give or cause to be given to each Officer and Delegate at least twenty one days notice in writing of the details of the date, time and agenda of the meeting.
11.2.4 Any Delegate may attend a Council Meeting and take part in discussions unless excluded by a ruling of the Chairperson or a resolution of the Council.

11.2.5 Where a meeting is held using electronic means, the procedures for conducting the meeting and for voting on resolutions shall be set down in the By-laws. These procedures shall as far as practicable reflect standard face-to-face meeting procedure.

11.2.6 Quorum for Council Meetings - A meeting shall be properly constituted if one half of the Member Associations are represented by Delegates.

11.3. Chairperson of the Council
The President shall chair all meetings of the Council. If the President is absent or stands aside from the chair, the meeting shall appoint another council member to preside.

   (a) Insurance policies as required by the Act.
   (b) Such additional insurance policies determined by the Council as appropriate.

20. DISCIPLINE, SUSPENSION AND EXPULSION OF MEMBERS, OFFICERS OR DELEGATES
20.1. Subject to these Rules, if the Council is of the opinion that Member an Officer, Delegate or has refused or neglected to comply with these Rules, or has been guilty of conduct unbecoming a Member or prejudicial to the interests of BAI or has not paid their annual subscription within 5 months of the date when payment was due, the Council may by resolution:
   (a) Expel that person or Member or
   (b) Suspend that person or Member from membership of BAI for a specified period.

20.2. A resolution of the Council under clause 21.1 does not take effect unless:
   (a) At a meeting held in accordance with clause 21.3 the Council confirms the resolution; and
   (b) If the Member exercises a right of appeal to BAI under this rule, BAI confirms the resolution in accordance with this rule.

20.3. A meeting of the Council to confirm or revoke a resolution passed under clause 21.1 must be held not earlier than fourteen days, and not later than twenty-eight days, after notice has been given to the Member in accordance with clause 21.4.

20.4. For the purposes of giving notice in accordance with clause 21.3 the Secretary must, as soon as practicable, cause to be given to the Member a written notice:
   (a) Setting out the resolution of the Council and the grounds on which it is based; and
   (b) Stating that the Member, or their representative, may address the Council at a meeting to be held not earlier than fourteen days and not later than twenty-eight days after the notice has been given to that person or Member; and
   (c) Stating the date, place and time of that meeting; and
   (d) Informing the person or Member that they may do one or both of the following:
      (i) Attend that meeting;
      (ii) Give to the Council, before the date of that meeting a written statement seeking the revocation of the resolution.
   (e) Informing the person or Member that, if at that meeting, the Council confirms the resolution, they may, not later than forty-eight hours after that meeting, give the Secretary a notice to the effect that they wish to appeal to BAI, in a general meeting against the resolution of the Council.

20.5. At a meeting of the Council to confirm or revoke a resolution passed under clause 21.1 the Council must:
   (a) Give the person or Member, or their representative, an opportunity to be heard; and
   (b) Give due consideration to any written statement submitted by the person or Member; and
   (c) Determine by resolution whether to confirm or to revoke the resolution.

20.6. If at the meeting of the Council, the Council confirms the resolution, the person or Member may, not later than forty-eight hours after that meeting, give the Secretary a notice to the effect that they wish to appeal BAI in general meeting against the resolution.

20.7. If the Secretary receives a notice under clause 21.6 he or she must notify the Council and the Council must convene a general meeting of BAI to be held within twenty-one days after the date on which the Secretary received the notice.

20.8. At a general meeting of BAI convened under clause 21.7:
   (a) No business other than the question of the appeal may be conducted; and
(b) The Council may place before the meeting details of the grounds for the resolution and the reasons for the passing of the resolution; and
(c) The person or Member, or their representative, must be given an opportunity to be heard; and
(d) The Members present must vote by secret ballot on the question whether the resolution should be confirmed or revoked.

20.9. A resolution is confirmed if, at the general meeting, not less than two-thirds of the Members vote, in favour of the resolution. In any other case, the resolution is revoked.

21. PROHIBITIONS AGAINST SECURING PROFITS FOR MEMBERS
The assets and income of BAI shall be applied exclusively to the promotion of its objects and no portion shall be paid or distributed directly or indirectly to delegates, members or their associates except as bona fide remuneration for services rendered or expenses incurred on behalf of the association.

22. PECUNIARY INTERESTS
22.1. A Delegate or Officer who has a pecuniary interest in any contract or arrangement made or proposed to be made with BAI shall disclose that interest at the first meeting of the Council at which the contract or arrangement is first taken into consideration or at the first Council Meeting after acquisition of the interest.

22.2. Any person who has an interest as referred to in clause 23.1 shall abstain in any vote relating to the interest, contract or arrangement.

23. NOTICES
Any notice required to be given under these Rules or the By-laws shall, unless these Rules or the By-laws otherwise require be sufficiently given if:
   (a) It is sent by ordinary post to the last known address of the person or Member to be served;
   or
   (b) It is sent by electronic mail to the last known electronic mail address of the person or Member to be served.

24. WINDING-UP
24.1 A motion for the winding-up or dissolution of BAI shall be dealt with in the same way as a matter for alteration of the Rules except that such a motion shall require not less than a ninety percent majority of the votes cast to be carried.

24.2 In the event of a winding-up, such assets of BAI as may remain after satisfaction of all debts and liabilities shall be given to such organisations which have rules which prohibit the distribution of their assets and income to their members and which, so far as practicable have objects similar to those of BAI, as may be chosen:
   (a) At the final meeting of BAI; or
   (b) In default thereof by the person winding-up BAI or
   (c) By a Judge of the Supreme Court in the state of registration.

25. CUSTODY AND INSPECTION OF BOOKS AND RECORDS
25.1. Except as otherwise provided in these Rules, the Secretary must keep in his or her custody or under his or her control all books, documents and securities of the Association.

25.2. Subject to the Association’s privacy policy and bylaws relating to the custody of personal information all accounts, books, securities and any other relevant documents of the Association must be available for inspection free of charge by any Member upon request and that Member may make a copy of such documents.

26. DISPUTES AND MEDIATION
26.1. The grievance procedure set out in this rule applies to disputes under these rules between:
   (a) An Officer, Delegate or Member and another Officer, Delegate or Member; or
(b) An Officer, Delegate or Member and BAI.

26.2. The parties to the dispute must meet and discuss the matter in dispute, and, if possible, resolve the dispute within fourteen days after the dispute comes to the attention of all of the parties.

26.3. If the parties are unable to resolve the dispute at the meeting, or if a party fails to attend that meeting, then the parties must, within ten days, hold a meeting in the presence of a mediator.

26.4. The mediator must be:
   (a) A person chosen by agreement between the parties; or
   (b) In the absence of agreement:
       (i) In the case of a dispute between an Officer, Delegate or Member and another Officer, Delegate or Member, a person appointed by the Council of BAI; or
       (ii) In the case of a dispute between an Officer, Delegate or Member and the Association, a person who is a mediator appointed or employed by a State Dispute Settlement Centre.

26.5. A Member of a Member of BAI can be a mediator.

26.6. The mediator cannot be a person who is a party to the dispute.

26.7. The parties to the dispute must, in good faith, attempt to settle the dispute by mediation.

26.8. The mediator, in conducting the mediation, must:
   (a) Give the parties to the mediation process every opportunity to be heard; and
   (b) Allow due consideration by all parties of any written statement submitted by any party; and
   (c) Ensure that natural justice is accorded to the parties to the dispute throughout the mediation process.

26.9. The mediator must not determine the dispute.

26.10. If the mediation process does not result in the dispute being resolved, the parties may seek to resolve the dispute in accordance with the Act or otherwise at law.
